1. Day

Istanbul - Pristina - Prizren - Shkodra

Meet in front of Counter ... at the Istanbul Airport International Departures Terminal. After check-in, baggage drop-off, and passport control, depart for Pristina at 7:50 a.m. on Turkish Airlines flight TK1017. Arrival in Pristina at 08:30. After passport, baggage, and customs procedures, we depart from the airport for a tour of Kosovo, one of the world's youngest nations, whose population is predominantly Muslim Albanians. We'll take in a panoramic view of Pristina and then head to Prizren via a short bus ride. During our panoramic tour of Prizren-perhaps one of the most charming cities in the Balkans-we will visit the 17th-century Turkish Bath, the Sinan Pasha Mosque built in 1615, and Prizren Castle. Following the tour and some free time, we'll head to Tirana, the capital of Albania. Upon arrival, we'll explore this beautiful city-a mountainous nation in the Balkans that was caught between wars throughout the 20th century and endured Enver Hoxha's dictatorial regime for 40 years, a mountainous country in the Balkans, we will take a panoramic tour of this beautiful city, which was founded by Süleyman Pasha in 1614 and became the capital of Albania in 1920. During our tour, we will see Ethem Bey Mosque, the Historic Clock Tower, the National History Museum, and the Opera House, all located in Skanderbeg Square. The Parliament and Prime Minister's Offices, the Presidential Palace, Mother Teresa Square, and the Tirana Pyramid are just some of the sights we'll see from our vehicle. After our Tirana tour and free time, we'll head to Macedonia via Elbasan. Transfer to our hotel. Overnight stay at our hotel.

Lunch: To be taken at an extra cost during free time at a location determined by the guide.

Dinner: To be taken at the hotel or a restaurant and is included in the tour price.

Accommodation: Hotel Belvedere, etc. - Ohrid

Route: Pristina - Prizren 85 km, Prizren - Tirana 184 km, Tirana - Ohrid 131 km

Estimated Check-in Time: Dependent on customs clearance time: 8:00 PM

2. Day

Shkodra - Budva - Kotor - Medjugorje

After breakfast at our hotel, we'll head to the city center of Ohrid, a town in the Balkans with the charm of a Mediterranean village. We begin our tour of Ohrid at Harbor Square, discussing the statues we'll see there. During our walk through the historic neighborhood where the TV series "Farewell Rumelia" was filmed, we'll explore the historic Ottoman houses, the Church of Hagia Sophia, and the famous Ohrid Pearl-the city's most iconic symbol-before concluding our tour. Following the tour, we'll have some free time. We'll then continue our journey to St. Naum, accompanied by breathtaking views. We visit the source of Lake Ohrid. The breathtaking scenery here is truly awe-inspiring. After our visit to St. Naum, we head to Tetova, Macedonia's second-largest city, where the majority of the population consists of Muslim Albanians. We'll take in a panoramic view of the city and visit the Alaca Mosque in Kalkandelen (Tetova), which features an architectural style rarely seen in the Balkans. We then head to the Matka Canyon, renowned for its unique beauty. After our nature hike, guests who wish to do so can take a boat tour of the canyon during their free time. Following the tour, we'll transfer back to our hotel. Overnight stay at the hotel.

3. Day

Medjugorje - Mostar - Blagaj - Konjic - Sarajevo

After breakfast, we begin our tour of Skopje, the capital of North Macedonia. We begin our tour of this city-where two distinct cultures are separated by the famous Vardar River-on the Macedonian side, which we might call the "land of statues." The first statue we'll see is the massive statue of Alexander the Great, which stands out for its enormous size. We then cross the Historic Skopje Stone Bridge spanning the Vardar River, experiencing a moment where we witness how cultures shift instantly, and proceed to the Skopje Turkish Bazaar, one of the most refined markets of the Ottoman Empire in the Balkans. We'll begin our market tour by

4. Day

Sarajevo - Belgrade

After breakfast at our hotel, we'll depart. Our first stop is the town of Mokra Gora. Here, we'll visit Drvengrad (Wooden Village), built by the famous director Emir Kusturica. Built entirely of wood, this village stands out for its houses reflecting old Slavic architecture, art galleries, and cobblestone streets. After our visit, we set off for Višegrad. Upon arrival, we visit the Drina Bridge (Sokullu Mehmet Paşa Bridge), a masterpiece by Mimar Sinan built during the reign of Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent in the 16th century. Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, this bridge is also the subject of Nobel Prize-winning author Ivo Andrić's novel "The Bridge on the Drina." After a short walk across the bridge and a tour of the surroundings, we provide free time. We then head to the capital, Sarajevo. We take a stroll through Baščaršija, Europe's most distinctive marketplace. On our tour introducing this cultural city, we begin at the Sarajevo Sebil Fountain-which has become a symbol of the Bazaar-and continue to Morica Han, one of the city's most authentic sites. We then visit the Hüsrev Bey Mosque, built by Hüsrev Bey, a relative of Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent. As our tour continues, we see the Clock Tower, the famous fountain that has become a ritual, and the meeting point of cultures; this street is also home to the "Eternal Flame" monument, which has become a symbol in its own right. We then have some free time; guests who wish may take photos of the Latin Bridge, where World War I began. Transfer back to our hotel. Overnight stay at our hotel.

Breakfast: Served at our hotel and included in the tour price.

Lunch: To be taken at a location determined by the guide during free time at an additional cost.

Dinner: Bosnian meatballs at a local restaurant, included in the tour price.

5. Day

Belgrade - Skopje

After breakfast at our hotel, we'll set off for Mostar, enjoying the beautiful scenery along the Neretva River's ecosystem. We'll make a short stop in the small, charming town of Konjic (known as Konyitz today), which is mentioned in Evliya Çelebi's Travelogue as the place where horses rested and drank water. After viewing and photographing the Konjic Bridge, built by Sultan Mehmed IV, we continue our journey via Jablanica. Along this route, we'll have the chance to see some of the most beautiful natural landscapes formed by the Neretva River. Upon arriving in Mostar, our walking city tour begins with a visit to the Mostar Bridge. (Built in 1557 by architect Hayreddin, the bridge is a masterpiece of Ottoman architecture.) The bridge was destroyed by Croatian artillery during the war in 1992, but it was reopened in 2004 with significant contributions from the Republic of Turkey. We explore the old city market. After some free time, we head to Blagaj, the land of the
